

Horst Konrad Rungberg

March 6, 1931 - September 10, 2020

Horst Konrad Rungberg, 89, passed away September 10, 2020. He was born March 6, 1931 in Baderan, Germany to the late Robert and Erma (Trehn) Rungberg. In addition to his parents, he is preceded by two brothers.

Horst spent most of his career as a Volkswagen mechanic and later became the service manager at a VW dealership in Los Angeles. He retired in 1999 and moved to Sarasota. He loved eating at McDonald, walking through parks and collecting shells at the beach.

Left to cherish his memory are his three sisters, Helga George, Christa Tintert and Siegrid Sackers. For the past 20 years, his dear friends Rudy and Sara Troyer included Horst into their family gatherings and always had him over for holidays and lots of meals. He will be greatly missed.

Entombment will be Friday, September 18, 2020 at 11:00 am at Manasota Memorial Park, 1221 53rd Avenue E. Bradenton, Florida 34203. Memories and condolences may be left online at www.MFHcares.com

“ My dear uncle Horst,
I miss you. Fortunately I have many unforgettable memories: our trips to Warnemünde, Bad Doberan, Kühlungsborn...and especially our crazy tour with my Mom, Dad and Markus to Berlin with all the mishaps we had to laugh about again and again afterwards, our visit to you in San Antonio with the hummingbird on your terrace...
I loved listening to your stories about your first arrival in New York and your new life in America. And I will never forget your funny sayings. And I'm grateful that we laughed together during our last conversation a few weeks ago.
You have a good place in my heart, and someday we'll see us again.
Your niece Jackie
