“"My dance partner has left the dance floor!" In the late 1950s, I would make my rounds of the New York City dance clubs...The Cheetah, Peppermint Lounge, Copacabana, Latin Quarter, Havana Madrid, and the Palladium! At the Palladium, I met and danced with Adele Scanlan to the music of Tito Puente. After that dance, 50 years had passed before I met Kim and Jeff Dulitz, and Kim's mother Adele, my Palladium dance partner. Fate works in strange ways.

That's why we shouldn't mourn where Adele has gone, but celebrate where she has been, all the lives she has touched, and how much better we are because she was there. Somewhere down the road... -Bob Nemser

“ Adele was a huge part of my in my early childhood and into my teen years. She worked with my mom for many years and eventually, they both moved into the same development. We weren't blood but she cared for my mother and i dearly and we loved her very much. When she moved to the west coast, it was as an aunt had left Miami. Her and my mom maintained a beautiful friendship through the years up until her passing. I will miss her dearly. May you rest peacefully, Adele. And may God bless your daughter Kimmy and Jeff as I know you will be watching over them and your grandkids that you loved so much.
