

Andrew Herman Butherus

December 13, 1984 - October 27, 2025

With heavy hearts, we share the passing of Andrew Herman Butherus, born December 13, 1984. He finally found the peace he sought on October 27, 2025, at the age of 40.

Andrew, who was born and spent the majority of his life in Sarasota, carried an adventurous spirit, gentle humor, and an unwavering loyalty to those he loved. He was an avid outdoorsman who loved fishing, kayaking and camping, especially on his home waters of the Gulf of Mexico. He was most at peace sitting in the sand within earshot of the breaking waves. Because of that love for the water, he was an outspoken advocate for the environment and its conservation. He also loved music and enjoyed going to concerts and was a regular at the Siesta Key drum circles. He was known to be quite the card shark at the poker tables as well.

His spirit lives on in the hearts of those who knew him: his brother Scott, his nephew Cannon, and the many friends and relatives whose lives were made richer by his presence.

A memorial service will be held to celebrate Andrew's life, share stories, and gather in community. Details will follow to family and friends.

Because of his devotion to the water, in lieu of flowers, the family invites contributions to Sarasota Bay Watch, an organization that shared his commitment to environmental conservation. Donate at: <https://sarasotabaywatch.org/donate-for-andrew/>
