“ I remember the first time I met her in choir, and many of the times when she would cheer me up, introduce me to her friends, and offer me advice when I needed it most.
I remember the days when I would run into her with the other ROTC students, even if all we did was exchange a quick hello.
I remember telling her how much I would miss her when she graduated.
Her presence alone was such a treat.
My heart goes out to all her friends and loved ones, and may her soul rest in peace.

“ My name is Caleb Blocker. I was in the chamber choir with Ashlynn only two years ago, and I must say I am beyond shocked and terribly saddened by the loss of an old friend at such an unfair age. Ashlynn was a happy-go-lucky girl, and was very clearly set out on bringing smiles to those around her. I pray she rests easy and give my strongest condolences to those closest to her.

“ Erin, Jared and Family,
We just wanted you to know how much we love you and how deeply sorry we are to hear what happened to sweet Ashlynn. I remember the day she was born like it was yesterday. I was privileged to get to spend so much time with her before you guys moved to Florida and she was always so special to my heart. Please know you are in our prayers and that we are always here for you. We love you all.

T & Russ

Here is a pic of an awesome day we had with her before you guys left. Such a sweet memory.

“ I first met her when I played against her at Venice high! I didn't get the chance to say hi or anything but I remembered her face. One day on my travel team she comes walking in to practice, at first a little shy but shortly opened up and when she did, man was she full of joy. For the short amount of time I spent with her I already considered her a close friend. We traveled to a few games together and even won the World Series together!!! And man in that short amount of time she brought me so much joy. She was so bright and hilarious, she lit up every room she walked in, and was so positive and lifted everyone up when we were down and getting out butts whooped lol. Ashlynn you were a firework. Big, bold and beautiful. I will miss you but I know I'll see you again 🕊️❤️ fly high sweet girl ☐

“ I believe I only had the pleasure of meeting her 2 or 3 times while she was vacationing in her father's hometown. He was absolutely so proud he couldn't help himself. He always came by with her when home. She brightened up my room with a fantastic smile, wonderful conversation, and was a very out going, young lady. She was also kinda tall and one of those folks that leave an impact on an old guy. I have no words other than I love you, Jared. I am always here.
