“ *Belkys was the absolute best! I had the privilege of being her supervisor for nearly two years. She always greeted everyone with a warm smile and a loving heart. She was much more than co-worker to her teammates. She was trusted. She was respected. And she was loved and beloved. Her daily morning greeting when entering the office will always ring in my mind “Good morning, my loves!”. There was never a task that was too big for her— especially if it was a challenge. She embraced the office challenges the same way she embraced the challenges of her illness— with courage and a smile.
I’ll miss you, my friend. My heart is broken for you and your family.*
