

Char Rider Turner

October 13, 1949 - March 6, 2026

Our beloved mother, Char Rider Turner, fell asleep in death on March 6, 2026.

In the book of John, Jesus said, "Lazarus our friend has fallen asleep, but I am traveling there to awaken him." Just as Lazarus was brought back to life, we hold firm to the faith that Char, too, will soon be awoken from her sleep.

We truly could not have asked for a more loving mom. Char was a caring wife and mother of four adorable children :) She also had a great sense of humor and filled our home with warmth, love and laughter. Above all, Char was a faithful servant of Jehovah God, loving Him with all her heart.

While we are deeply saddened by her passing, we find great peace in the promise found at John 5:28, 29: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

We look forward with all our hearts to the day when we are reunited.

Left to cherish Char's memory are her children Jevon, Jehiah, Austan, and Cheynia Turner; husband Russ Turner; sister Phyllis Trindel; nephew Michael Rider and cousin Yvonne Gettes Merriman.

Char was preceded in death by her parents, Bert and Margie Rider and her sister, Rheta Sue.
