

Charles Labita

April 4, 1955 - August 19, 2025

Charles Labita, 70, passed away August 19, 2025. He was born April 4, 1955 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Anthony and Marian (Titone) Labita.

Charles was a College Computer Teacher and loved music, playing guitar, song writing, and serving at church.

Left to cherish his memory are his sister Dorothy and her husband Armin; nieces Jennifer and Jade; great nieces Stella and Isabella; and great nephew Chase.

Memorial contributions may be made in Charles' honor to the St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital online at www.stjude.org.

Memories and condolences may be left for the family at www.MFHcares.com.

Previous Events

Memorial Mass

AUG 28. 11:00 AM (ET)

Our Lady of the Angels Catholic Church
12905 State Road 70 E.
Lakewood Ranch, FL 34202

Tribute Wall

LB

“ I had the honor to know Charles the final hours of his earthly life. I am forever blessed by his gift of assurance of the everlasting that I will carry in my heart until we meet again.....Thank you Charles for giving to the Lord.

Lora Ruth Brown - August 23, 2025 at 06:07 AM

JG

Charlie was my closest friend and music co-Songwriter from 1978-1984 We recorded an album called "Silly Boys Want You" in 1982 which is still popular in Japan to this day! Rock On old friend.. Joey Graz

Joey Graziano - December 29, 2025 at 12:04 AM

Rest in peace Charlie....

Joe Niebank - December 29, 2025 at 12:16 PM