“ I remember Cheryl’s soft and pleasant voice when I called East Lake Church with a question. She was a blessing to our church when she was secretary. God bless her family. She was a sweetheart!

“ I hired Cheryl to be the church secretary at what was then George Young UMC in Palm Harbor, now East Lake UMC. We had fun working together on various projects as we had just built a new sanctuary. She had a dry sense of humor and I loved pulling small practical jokes on her to make her laugh. She was a dedicated worker and quickly made many friends in the church. Many in the church still have fond memories of her time at the church.
