

Craig Christopher Boley

December 1, 1963 - January 14, 2026

Craig Christopher Boley passed away in Sarasota, Florida on January 14th 2026. He was born in McKeesport, Pennsylvania on December 1st 1963.

Craig was a veteran who served the United States Navy. His proudest moments and enduring memories were on the USS Gunard as a submariner. He made the move to Florida with his partner of 31 years in March 2025. He was always very positive, happy, and loved life. Craig was a faithfully struggling Greek Catholic. He always had to be moving and thinking. He had a passion to make things beautiful, and that was shown in his remodeling work for his improvement projects for his home.

Craig is preceded in death by his father Bert Boley.

Left to cherish Craig's memory are his devoted partner since 1995, Charles Christy; mother Barbara Boley; and brothers Matt Boley, and Mark Boley and his wife Rocki.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his honor to: Holy Theophany Romanian Greek - Catholic Monastery, Olympia Washington.

There will be a Shelter Service with Navy Honors held at the Sarasota National Cemetery on Tuesday, January 27, 2026 at 10:30 am.

Memories and condolences may be left for his family at www.MFHcares.com
