

David Clement Bruso

August 4, 1940 - June 10, 2022

David Clement Bruso, 81, passed away June 10, 2022. He was born August 4, 1940 in Menominee, Michigan to the late Clement John and Pearl Rebecca (King) Bruso.

 David was a bread salesman and later he and his wife owned the Dairy Treat of Menominee Restaurant through the 80's and 90's. Once they sold the restaurant, he and his wife traveled the country in their RV. They've been snowbirds to the west coast of Florida since 1986 and moved down here permanently 3 years ago from Menominee.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife whom he married in 1986, Dianna; son Randolph Bruso and his wife Diana; daughters Rebecca Frank and her husband Ron; Raelynn Wentz and her husband Ron; and Gina Fountain and her husband Lauren; step children, Cheryl (Harris) Multerer; Sandy (Harris) Hanson, Brenda (Harris) Foster and Charlene (Harris) Ellis; sisters Carol Martin and Mary Jane Kleinke; and 35 grandchildren and great grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, David was predeceased by his sisters, Barbara Marfleet and Rosalie Bruso.

Memories and condolences may be left for the family online at www.MFHcare.com.
