

David Scott Korwin

December 29, 1966 - May 24, 2020

David Scott Korwin, beloved husband and father, 53, passed away May 24, 2020. He was born December 29, 1966 in St. Clair Shores, Michigan. He is preceded in death by his father, John Terry Korwin.

David was formerly a cast member at Disney World in Orlando and came to Sarasota in 1998. He's been a Workers Compensation Catastrophic Claims Director for the Zenith Insurance Company since 1997.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife of 25 years, Cheryl; daughters, Libby Grace Korwin and Emmy Grace Korwin; sons, Jason Tanner Korwin and Justin David Korwin; mother Christine Korwin, sister, Vicki Haist and her husband Rick; brother, Ricky Korwin; nephews, Michael, Jeremy, Aaron and James; niece, Olivia; in-laws, Phyllis and Ron Sheets and Edwin and Kay Niblett; and brother-in-law, Jim Niblett.

David worked very hard to provide for his family and had a passion for helping others. He strived to put a smile on others' faces with his humor, kind actions, gift giving or by spending quality time with family and friends. He loved worshipping the Lord with his church family at Bayside, many of whom stood with him, cared for him and prayed for him over the past weeks. David was an avid volunteer for the Riverview High School Kiltie Band of which all his children were members. He enjoyed OrangeTheory Fitness, walking on the beach, learning about history, shopping, movies and decorating for Christmas. He loved date nights and spending time with his family whom he loved dearly. He was incredibly proud of his children, what they have accomplished and the beautiful people they have become as adults. He was well loved by his coworkers and everyone who knew him.

There will be a Celebration of Life to honor David on Saturday, June 13, 2020 at 10:00 am at 8084 Hawkins Road, Sarasota, Florida. Please wear David's favorite color.....blue. The family is encouraging those that have wonderful stories or special pictures of Dave to bring those written memories for the family to hold dear to them at a later time.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in David's honor to www.expandyourlove.org Dave was an officer of Expand Your Love. The nonprofit works to bring awareness about Foster Care and Adoption for so many of our most vulnerable population.

Arrangements are being handled for the family by Maloney Funeral Home. www.MFHcares.com
