

David C. Wray

June 5, 1955 - May 13, 2021

David C. Wray, born June 5, 1955, a lifelong resident of Indianapolis passed away peacefully in Florida on May 13, 2021.

David was a 40 year member of the National Automatic Sprinkler Industry, and retired from union 669. David was a very proud father and grandfather. Always quick with a smile and a joke, David was a great friend to many. He loved all sports, and was a devoted fan of The Indianapolis Colts, Indiana Pacers and Indiana Hoosiers. He was a Harley Davidson enthusiast who spent his later years searching for the perfect beach to sit back, relax and enjoy the warm weather.

David is survived by his two daughters, Rachelle St Martin (Rewi) and Kristin Gee (Robbie), and his grandchildren Otis and Ruby. He is also survived by his brother Tom Wray (Melissa), several nieces and nephews and many cousins. David is preceded in death by his parents Morris and Phyllis Wray, and siblings, Tracy, Curtis and Julie.
