

Dorothy May Hayes

November 5, 1929 - January 28, 2025

Dorothy May Hayes passed away on January 28, 2025 in Sarasota, Florida at the impressive age of 95, surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Manila, Philippines on November 5, 1929.

After living in the Philippines, Panama and Atlanta, Georgia, Dorothy moved to Sarasota, Florida in 1946. She was universally loved and respected by those around her. She was a faithful Christian, mother, grandmother and business owner. She owned a bookkeeping business and worked as a bookkeeper for Yoder's Restaurant for decades. She had a passion for her work, diligently looking after many clients over the years and retiring at the impressive age of 94. In her younger years, she enjoyed dancing; she even danced at the Old Lido Beach Casino and the John Ringling hotel. She also enjoyed watching football, completing crossword puzzles, spending time with family and appreciating delicious sweet treats. If you spent any time with Dorothy, it would not be long until you shared a laugh together--as her gentle voice, warm smile, quick wit and unsuspecting humor made her a complete joy to be around. If you were truly lucky, you'd hear her beautifully sing some classics like "Somewhere Over the Rainbow."

Left to cherish Dorothy's bright memory are her children Thomas (Tracy) Hayes, Marilyn Hayes, son-in-law Frank Slocum Jr.; grandchildren Courtney (Matthew) Petersen, Kyleigh (Nate) Moore, Whitney (John) Burkett, Bryant (Marisa) Hayes, Weston Hayes and Laurence Pass, along with seven great-grandchildren.

Dorothy is preceded in death by her parents Pascal Rupert and Edna (Mitzlaff) Rupert; brother George Rupert; daughters Cheryl Slocum and Jackie Hayes; and nephew George Rupert Jr.

“ I love you Grandma ma poobah. You are greatly missed. You were such a light in a dark world. You mean so much to me. Jesus took you home to be with Him and I couldn't be happier. We will see each other again someday.
