

Doug Wayne Fruehwald

February 14, 1955 - July 28, 2025

Douglas (Doug) Wayne Fruehwald passed away in Sarasota, Florida on July 28, 2025. He was born in Evansville, Indiana on February 14, 1955.

Doug made the move to Florida from Indiana in 1957, where he owned D & D Plastering, LLC; and became an involved member of his community. He was a member of the Cattlemen Association and 4-H - Riding Rednecks Club. Doug spent a lot of time helping his daughter participate in the 4-H Club - Rednecks Club raising steers for the fair.

Doug is preceded in death by his parents Roy and June; and his sister Ganel.

Left to cherish his memory are his devoted wife of 33 years Shari Fruehwald; children Shelley Peters, Kelly Stanton and her husband Robert, Christina Fruehwald; brother Dale Fruehwald; grandchildren Shannon, Martin, and Nicole Peters, and Bethany, Collin, Audrey Stanton.

Memorial contributions may be made in his honor to the National Kidney Foundation at <https://support.kidney.org> or the National Heart Association at: <https://pages.heart.org/>.

Memories and condolences may be left for his family at www.MFHcares.com.
