Tyler sorry for your loss, Your dad was always proud of you and his excitement level increased when he spoke of you. I had the pleasure to work with your dad and call him a friend. He was always ready to work and play. Never a dull moment when we hung out or even talked on the phone. Keep his memory near and he will be watching over you! God Bless!

Dwayne was one of the good ones. I worked with him over the years when he was in Silverthorne and was so happy for him when he made the jump to the sunny state of Florida. He was a firecracker for sure! I am so sad to be hearing this news. My prayers are with you.
