“ i am sorry to hear that Ed has departed this life and moved on. Edgar was in my 5th grade class the second year I taught at Alta Vista School. He was very bright and full of mischief! I got to know his parents also. After he attended college, he visited my husband and children and me often and we spent time singing while he played guitar. He was a very committed Christian and we went several times to events with him at his church. I was very happy when he decided he wanted to be a teacher. May light perpetual shine upon you Ed. The souls of the righteous are in the hands of God!

God I thank you that I got to know Eddie through the church I belong to Calvary Chapel Christian Fellowship in 1999. He was on the worship team. Not only did I get to know him but I got to know his sister Lily and his mom was audio his brother Pablo lives in my neighborhood. We've been through a lot in the 21 years that I've known him not only through the church but personally attending activities at his house his mom's Church going to Christian conferences together. I also would attend and have dinner on Monday nights at the packing house where he played. Would be his taxi driver to several events several times when they did not have a car or he cannot drive. I met many many friends through them Karen and Gregg dove my hairdresser my friend my name and my sister in Christ Maria banana who new the family personally our friend Karen Avery shared many birthdays are their choice or going to their house. Many times they came to my house for different activities. When tomorrow starts without me please try to understand. That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand; the angel said my place was ready, 11 far above, and then I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love. But when I walk through Heaven's Gates, I felt so much at home, forgot look down, smiled at me, and told me welcome home so when tomorrow start without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me I'm right there in your heart. Eddie you are in heaven with so many people your dad my brother-in-law Charlie you two were friends through thick and thin. God bless you and your family.
