Ed was a smart, thoughtful person. He would send us an email greeting for a Merry Christmas in several different languages. He is a kind soul.

I used to look Ed whenever I was at the Courthouse. We used to talk about retirement and how we were looking forward to it. A very genuine person, which says a lot. You will be missed Brother.

The times were worked together he made easy for me. I don't remember him ever being negative or down. He was always positive and was excited about each day. He absolutely will be missed.

Ed was one of my favorite bailiffs. So professional and a real presence in the courtroom. Behind doors, you couldn't ask for a better personality. I always tried my limited german vocabulary on him and he always entertained it. I missed him when he retired and miss him more now. Rest in peace, Ed.
