“ We met Dave, Emilie, and the Three Geniuses at Sarasota Baptist Church in 1998. We were young (in our thirties—very young to us now!), newly married, and enjoying the fellowship of our Sunday School, Wednesday nights, Pastor Mike and his wonderful family, Awana, yearly Grand Prix, Christmas Pageant— all the people and events that made Sarasota Baptist, Sarasota Baptist. And one of the most meaningful and enjoyable parts of SBC is the Cruse— Brown family. The eternal imprint of Dave, Emilie, Jaymes, Nathan, and Daniel may not be fully known by us now, but Emilie now knows that very well, as she will forever enjoy her eternal reward.

It's easy to become emotional when we remember the many years and all that went into writing and producing the Sarasota community Christmas favorite — The Sarasota Baptist Church Christmas Pageant. Many members of the community, who did not attend church, never missed the Christmas Pageant, which continues to minister to countless souls involved in the pageant, members of the church, the Sarasota community, and beyond. We always looked forward to learning what part Emilie would play and to hearing the heartfelt lines and music Dave was inspired to create, along with others who worked so hard to impact lives and point people to Jesus.

There is no sweeter lady with more talent in singing, arts and crafts, humor, her ability to be your happy and willing go-to person whenever there was a need, and loving her precious family.

Our questions remain unanswered in this life; even so, we draw comfort in knowing that the first thing Emilie saw when she opened her beautiful eyes in Eternity was the face of Jesus. We can only imagine!

Well done, Sweet Friend, and good and faithful servant. Until we meet again — Enter into the joy of your Lord!

All our love,
Jerry and Kim Cullen

“Emilie brightened my day every time I saw her while answering phones for The Joy FM Sharathon or Friendraiser. The stars are definitely shining brighter now that she is in heaven.

My heart hurts for all whose lives are a bit darker today. But all of those lives were also brighter because of having Emilie in their lives.

Praying for all of her family and friends as well as the entire Joy FM Staff and Family.

May the joy of her life provide a measure of comfort against the grief of their loss. And, may their best memories of her help to cover the huge hole left in the heart of those who love her.

*In God's Great Love,
Connie Hunt (the "redundant giver" in the Joy FM family)*

PS Whenever Dave is ready to return to the station, I'll try to be sure to have some Red Velvet Cupcakes for him soon after that. ;-)
