

Ernesto Pietro Giacinto

November 16, 1930 - June 4, 2024

It is with a sad heart that our family announces the passing of my father Ernesto Pietro Giacinto. 93 years young and still working with his tools and building things. Everyone he met was touched by his big heart and kindness. The family was with him as his spirit left us to go home to the Father. We love you fly with Angels 🦋

Ernesto Pietro Giacinto, passed away on June 4th 2024 in Sarasota Florida. He was born in Paterno Calabro, Italy on November 16th 1930. Ernesto moved to NYC from Italy in 1970. In 1990 he retired to Sarasota, Florida.

For most of his career, Ernesto was a successful bricklayer, and an established member of the local 1 bricklayers union for over 50 years. In his spare time, Ernesto was a dedicated member of St. Patrick Catholic Church, enjoyed playing cards, and working with his hands on at-home building projects.

Ernesto is preceded in death by his parents Vincenzo and Maria Giacinto: wife of 57 years Assunta; and daughter-in-law Rosa.

Left to cherish his memory are his children Vincenzo Giacinto, Aurelio Giacinto and Rachele, Maria Masucci and Giuseppe; siblings Rita, Orlando, Frank and Micheal; grandchildren Gianpietro, Ricardo, Assunta, Stefania, Francesco, Marcello, Angelo, and Alex and his 7 great grandchildren.

A viewing for Ernesto will be held at Maloney Funeral Home at 9am-10am on June 8th followed by a mass service at Maloney Funeral Home at 10am, and burial and entombment at Sarasota Memorial Park at 12pm.
