“ I didn't meet Gwen until later in life. She came to our Adult daycare services. I have many great things I remember about Gwen, she holds a special place in my heart. She was little miss sassy pants 🤪 But the one I remember the most was when she had gone home on the bus and decided to go walk to her brothers. Without letting Kim(scooter) know. When she got home she was frantic and couldn't find her. Called all over. Then Gwen came sashaying home. The next day she couldn't understand why Scooter was so upset. Loved her dearly and miss her. Love to all the family. ❤️🥺

“ I met Gwen in 1982. We were on a 10 day survival trek to become outdoor survive leaders. We became instant friends. She had the GORP and I had the Jerky. She packed a pack full of food and sources we all thought we needed. That trip pushed us to the edge and at the end of it all. We were bonded for life. I became part of the family and Gwen and I traveled may corners of CA ,NC,MI,IN and Fl...FL.... and all the roads in between. I can't reveal all our secrets ... but I can say we laughed a d lived life to the fullest. Now 40 years later I have to try life with you. My heart is cracked open and I miss you on this planet with me. I am grateful for your family who has loved me as a sister. There is were I will find your spirit tucked I. Beside me until we meet again sweet Peachie! Thank you for all the joy, love and laughs. I will see you on the otherside. All my love, Tamara

“ Oh Momma Gwen! She was a spitfire! You always knew she was up to something when she had that grin. But her love for her grandchildren, Preston & Logan, always shine through.

Thank you Danielle for sharing your mom with me ❤️
