

Harold "Hal" Mark Bedney

March 18, 1960 - April 20, 2026

Harold Mark Bedney (Hal), 66, passed away April 20, 2026 in Sarasota, Florida. He was born March 18, 1960 in Brooklyn, New York, to the late Richard and Phyllis Bedney. He lived in the Sarasota area for the past fifteen years.

Hal was an avid sports fan, and especially enjoyed cheering for (and lamenting) the New York Mets and the New York Football Giants. One of the hobbies that Hal enjoyed was plane spotting.

PS

“ How is the very dear friend of mine and coworker. He was very stubborn when it came to asking for help or receiving any help. But I will truly miss our conversations on the phone and I will truly miss and being here. The rest in peace my friend and now you're always in my heart love you if you do not
