“ We (Rob and I) just learned that we lost our friend Ian. We are in complete shock. I first met Ian in 2005 when I met his best friend Rob. Ian was a kind soul. Sweet, funny, and such an amazing person in general. He is so missed and loved! We were lucky enough to spend time with Ian and his girl Migdaly in december 2021. We had so much fun and he cooked us a beautiful meal! Good memories forever in our hearts. Ian, forever in our hearts! We send our condolences to his family and friends and of course his girlfriend. He will always be our guardian angel and guide us through life. Till we meet again buddy . Love you!

I didn't know when this happened. I didn't know him when he was in the motorcycle club. I just knew him when we were young and in love, and he was brave and courageous and came to NYC to make his wildest dreams come true. And he did. He became a sous chef, and brought happiness into people's lives through their bellies and sophisticated and hungry taste buds. Ian showed me a life, short of perfection, but full in laughter and friends, music, food and passion. my mom always loved him, because she always said she saw his pure, loving heart. I will never forget the person you were to me in those early years. Rest in peace, Ian.

“ My memories of Payette’s. Edgar playing piano for over 20 of us in a 16 x 4 hallway in front of what use to be Armon’s great grandmothers bedroom, Vanetta. She was married to Armand!!!! Edgar jamming away surrounded by teary laughter, nieces and nephews, sifers and many brothers in law. I the youngest of the crowd spent decades living with Vanetta and Saintly daughters. I never saw them argue. I miss them and look forward to joining them as Armon has.
