

Jaclyn Abbe Frankel

October 15, 1946 - May 19, 2021

Jaclyn “Jackie” Abbe Frankel (nee Jacob) passed away on May 19, 2021 at the age of 74 in Sarasota, FL.

Jackie was born in The Bronx, NY to Louis and Hilda Jacob in 1946. She graduated from Jamaica (Queens) High School in 1964 and the University of Bridgeport in 1968. Jackie worked in publishing at Doubleday and then in web advertising for decades, finally completing her career at March of Dimes. She was a globetrotter, visiting countless countries and immersing herself in the culture. She loved a really high-quality and slightly spicy guacamole. And her favorite songs were “Ball & Chain” by Janis Joplin (live at Monterey 1967) and “Hallelujah” performed by Jeff Buckley.

Jackie is survived by her husband, David, 74, in Sarasota, and sons, Lee, 49, in Boston, and Lucas, 36, in Pittsburgh.

There will be a Zoom memorial service and a small shiva will be held at her home in Florida.

Jackie laughed and celebrated life all the way until the end; she would want us all to have the courage to do the same. May her memory be a blessing.
