“ I knew Jane in Brookside Jr High and Riverview High School in Sarasota. We were in the same classes. Somehow, I randomly thought of her today 9/22/2022, and decided to google her name and found out that she died earlier this year. I'm saddened to learn of her death. May you rest in peace, dear Jane.

“ I met Janie when Kelly brought me home with her from school. Janie was sitting on the floor in front of her bed watching tv and rocking Billie to sleep. Billie was just an infant. Janie was a big sister to me, she made sure I had something to eat, and got me home safe while my mother was working nights. Janie would take Kelly and I to the skating rink and once in awhile Pirate's Cove. Lord knows Waffle House will never be the same but Janie did not get embarrassed when we were leaving and some guys were heckling us and I mooned them. lol Janie took us to Waffle House again, and again. I can remember a few times having to go to the laundry mat to do laundry and we sat in the car singing Whitney Houston's song, "Wanna Dance With Somebody". After I got my first car, I was coming home by myself one night and these guys started heckling me and they kept chasing my car, so I headed to Kelly's house and the Police pulled those guys over before I got there but Janie got out of bed and rode home with me so I would be safe and Tony came and picked Janie up from house. Like I said, she was a big sister to me. I will miss her.
