“ I'll never forget her. Although our encounter was brief, I'll forever cherish the love and memories she shared of her children, grandchildren, and her time in Iowa. She was very clearly a woman that was loved and with deep faith.

“ Janet was one of a few matriarch's of our church family. Always there, involved, caring, energetic and enthused about life. The sympathy card she sent my wife when her Father passed was so special as she passed not long after sending the card. Always thinking of others. Glad you are reunited with Johnny and with our Lord 💕. Prayers for your family. 🙏
