

Jenny Marie Hill

May 23, 1985 - March 7, 2021

Jenny Marie Hill, 35, passed away March 7, 2021. She was born May 23, 1985 in Atlanta, Georgia to the late Calvin Lester Hill and Angel Rene (Johnson) Hill. Jenny came to Sarasota when she was 5 years old and lived most of her life here. She was a strong Christian and wrote two daily devotional books and was preparing to publish her third book. She loved God with all of her heart and enjoyed helping and counseling people. Jenny was a people person and loved spending time with family and friends. She also loved writing, producing and performing music. She was very passionate about the messages that her music conveyed. Jenny loved to laugh and have a good time and made everyone feel special. She was a passionate person who broke the mold of what it means to be passionate about something. She was a warrior of faith and is a huge contribution to Heaven.

Left to cherish her memory are her daughters, Nakeyah Campbell and Kierra Smith; sister, Shelly Hill Quinones and her husband Victor; brother, Tony Hill; sister in law, Ana Soto; nieces and nephews, Keyon, Jhondre, Kalil, Kiana, Angel, Lalita and Jadiel and a host of aunts, uncles, cousin's and friends.

In addition to her parents, Jenny was preceded in death by her brother, Calvin.

“ I will remember the shine of your beauty.

The shine of your beauty and your strength and courage to overcome obstacles that were in your path.

The shine of the beauty of your smile that lifted all that you encounter.

The shine of your beauty for those that needed hope,encouragement and your prayers.

The shine of your beauty in your humor to get those around you to let down their guard and to laugh and smile and to be free.

The shine of your beauty to encourage others through your writing and sharing and sending out your daily devotional.

The shine of your beauty to accomplish of being a author of your two daily devotionals books that were published to inspire others to have faith,hope and trust in God.

Let us remember the shine of Jenny's Beauty given to each of us through the love given and the life she shared with each of us.

The shine of her beauty will forever be with us through her impact of the shine of her beauty that God entrusted her with to share with all that crossed her path.

I will be forever be grateful for God that He gave us the time with Jenny and how the shine of her beauty of her life impacted all of us.

“ Hey.... it’s “old cousin Tracee (Anderson) Brown Newell - have to say with Jenny being her Momma’s baby girl.....She laughed so much like her Mom, Angel that after we lost Angel a few years ago, whenever I got to speak with Jen by phone, that laugh made me feel sooo good! Because I am one of the older cousins, I considered Jenny more like one of my kids, because she and her sister & brother, Tony all hung out with MY boys & their families in FL & were sooo close - years ago when I actually lived with them in Sarasota, and I had my grandson with me, who at that time was only 2 years old, he totally loved being with them & looked forward to seeing Jenny & Shelly every morning before they left for school. When we moved out, he would always ask me, “when we going to Sarrasota GranTee!” I was like, “boy what you know about Sarasota?” He said, I wanna see Jenny & Shelly & Tony!” My husband, Donald & I were with Jenny during her labor & delivery of her daughter, KeKe along with Calvin, Shelly & Tony..... we stayed until the baby was born & even then, Jenny was so polite & composed even when her labor got really intense.... and that’s the way she was ALL the time.... ❤️

The last time I spoke with Jenny was at the time of the preparations for Tony’s baptism & when she sent me the video, she & I were texting back and forth & I had her laughing because I said “Girl, all I could hear was you praising!” And, that was my last time hearing her laugh..... I will always cherish her determination and faith encouragement & how whenever I got to talk with her, she made me so proud of her accomplishments & the success she achieved after her struggles in life. I know she is at rest because she did as the Bible says of the Apostle Paul, “ran her race, finished her course & kept her faith.” I Love you Jenny Girl & goin miss that “Fo-Day” scripture drop onto my phone..... I always said, “there’s Jenny” & went back to sleep & would read it first thing when I woke up.... 😊
