“ John will be missed tremendously! He was a dear friend of mine and also a distant cousin. I always enjoyed his phone conversations and the many chats in person at the Pinecraft park! John had a very positive outlook in life despite the hard life he fought! One of our last conversations was about his loving relationship with his savior Jesus Christ! He is definitely enjoying his reward! Condolences to the family! Until we meet again! Paul Troyer

John was a good friend and will be greatly missed. But I know he went right to Jesus, the Savior we love. My condolences to his family.

“ Gods grace and peace to the family of John 🙏 my husband was the first to see John struggle and swam out to him, my husband called for help to the man in the boat who jumped in to assist bringing John to shore and start CPR. He was surrounded by many loving people 🙏
