“ John
Was always cracking a joke or two about something. Sharing many of the same classes at SMA, He made high school a happier place. Like many of his siblings, He was a marvelous singer and loved to sing. A featured singer with Remnant, John seemed happiest when he was singing. With his brother Chris, also a featured Remnant singer, John engineered some of the funniest memories from those days.

John must have realized how difficult leaving his big family for college must have been. A year later, He offered to share his apartment room with me. In his quiet way, He made my transition to the same college so much easier. He had an instinct for helping others. Later in life, I should have thanked him properly for that gesture and making those days so much easier for me. But he probably would have just explained it away with a joke? Thanks John. Rest In Peace. Watch over us. Love from an old friend, Tom

“ One of the best. Coach Sharrow will be greatly missed. There isn't a time in my softball playing days where he was not there in full support, dedicating countless time and energy to making us better players. Thank you for being such a positive influence.
