

Jack Slocum

November 13, 1933 - December 6, 2025

John “Jack” Charles Slocum passed away in Bradenton, Florida on December 6th 2025. He was born in Waterbury, Connecticut on November 13th 1933.

Jack attended Central Connecticut State University and graduated earning his associates degree. He made the move to Florida in the 80’s and went on to have a successful career as the owner of his own sports advertising company, as well as the owner of a Baseball Card Shop and a Fishing Tackle Store. Jack was very athletic, and in his free time he was a softball coach and player. He never missed the opportunity to see his children and grandchildren’s events and games. Jack was very likeable, and became well loved in his community and his church, Palma Sola Presbyterian.

Jack is preceded in death by his parents Harold and Bessie; daughter Janet; son-in-law Mike Santello; siblings Doris, Harold “Buddy”, Beverly, and Ernest.

Left to cherish his memory are his devoted wife Nancy Slocum; children Carol Slocum, John Slocum and his wife Christina, Stephen Slocum and his wife Peggy, Julie Santello; son-in-law Ed Poeslma; grandchildren Jessica Slocum Acco and her partner Ashley, Chelsea Poelsma Rachide and her husband Casey, Marshall and Macy Poelsma, Kyle Slocum, Michael & Thomas Santello; great grandchildren Griffin and Owen Rachide, Collin Acco

Memories and condolences may be left for his family at www.MFHcares.com.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ Deborah A. planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Jack Slocum.

Deborah A. - December 13, 2025 at 08:33 PM

VL

“ So sorry for your families loss. I have fond memories of Jack from my Watson Publications days. He would always be so upbeat and we always joked around. He will always be remembered by me as Yo-Yo. You will be missed by so many RIP

Victoria S Lampert - December 10, 2025 at 01:19 PM