

Joseph "Joe" William Damren

October 3, 1940 - May 11, 2024

Joseph (Joe) William Damren, 83, finished his earthly race on May 11, 2024, and met his Savior face-to-face. Born October 3, 1940 in Miami, Florida to the late Joseph Oscar Damren and Mary Lorraine (Chandler) Damren, Joe was the youngest of their four children.

Joe served in the United States Air Force and then served on the missile guidance team working for General Electric at NASA during the Gemini and Apollo space programs at Cape Canaveral, Florida and transferred to work on Sky Lab in Huntsville, Alabama. After moving to Ohio in October 1973 with GE to work on numerical controls, he founded J & P Consultants shortly after his son was born. He served clients all over the US through his business, and passed the generational mantle to his son. A servant at heart, Joe served as a volunteer for 25 years as a Royal Ranger Commander, training boys and young men to be Christlike men and lifelong servant leaders. He served his God, his family, his friends, and even strangers. He cooked many spaghetti dinners as fundraisers for church mission trips. Joe enjoyed fishing, hunting, and camping. He was also trained to be a licensed auctioneer, a real estate agent, and made his first solo flight in his goal to be a pilot. He always put God first was never ashamed to speak about his Savior. He was a man of faith and walked it out daily.
