

Larry Michael Burstein

November 8, 1947 - July 4, 2023

Larry Michael Burstein (Loka), a hero, loving father, dear friend, and cherished grandfather, passed away peacefully on July 4, 2023, at the age of 75. Larry's life was a testament to the power of love, faith, and generosity, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Larry was a man of unwavering devotion, finding solace and inspiration in his faith as a devotee of Krishna. He shared his profound wisdom with others, emphasizing that true success lies not in material possessions, but in the depth of one's piety and the love they give to others. Larry's love knew no bounds; he would give the shirt off his own back to help a friend in need, embodying the true spirit of philanthropy and compassion.

With a playful sense of humor and a heart of gold, Larry brought joy to those around him. His wit and intelligence were matched only by his ability to make others laugh and feel cherished. Larry's presence was magnetic, as he effortlessly commanded attention and created an atmosphere of love and warmth. He cherished his family above all else, spoiling his children and grandchildren with his boundless affection.

Larry's greatest accomplishment was his family. As a loving father, he raised four sons and a daughter, instilling in them the values of love, kindness, and perseverance. He was a pillar of support and guidance, always ready to offer advice and encouragement. In his early years, Larry's dedication to his faith led him to become one of the biggest book distributors in ISKON, leaving a lasting impact on the community.

An entrepreneur at heart, Larry achieved success through his self-made ventures, running successful internet businesses from the comfort of his desk. He exemplified the importance of hard work and determination, proving that one's dreams can be realized through unwavering dedication. Yet, Larry never sought recognition for his accomplishments, humbly attributing his true fulfillment to being a loving father and a devoted family man.

Larry's love for adventure led him on journeys to India, where he found solace and spiritual enlightenment. He delighted in creating lasting memories with his family, whether it was exploring local Florida springs and beaches or attending wrestling matches and football games during their high school years. Larry's thirst for knowledge was insatiable, often found immersed in scripture, sharing his wisdom with others in pursuit of growth and enlightenment.

Beyond his immediate circle, Larry's philanthropic endeavors touched the lives of many. He selflessly donated to individuals in need, while also contributing to the construction of schools in Africa and Argentina. His dedication to uplifting others and making a positive impact on the world was a testament to his unwavering compassion and boundless generosity.

Larry Michael Burstein will forever be remembered as a hero, a loving father, a dear friend, a cherished grandfather, and a man with a kind spirit. His legacy of love, faith, and philanthropy will continue to inspire and guide those fortunate enough to have known him. Though he may no longer be with us in person, his spirit will forever live on in the hearts and minds of those whose lives he touched.
