“ What can I saw about my dad? He tucked me into bed every night when I was small, even when there were people over for dinner.... He would always excuse himself to tuck his little girl into bed. No matter the task, he would always take it on.... You wanted some shelves built? Ok, what type of wood? What dimensions? You needed some help with your yard? Ok, what do you want to plant? And of course he knew exactly where it should be planted based on the sunlight. You wanted a home cooked meal? Done! He would cook the most delicious food. As my mom would say, when the food tasted good, he cooked with a happy heart.

I am so very happy that my boys got to know their Papio.... They couldn't say "Papa Leo" when they were small so his name became Papio. There is no other Papio in this whole entire world!! He loved my boys so much, that even on his very last days, he would always ask where were HIS boys. And as soon as he saw them, his face would light up.

I miss him so much and I am thankful for the 43 yrs of unconditional love and support he always gave to me. Thank you Dad, for being our rock.

“ We fondly remember Leo for his infectious laugh, huge heart and generous hospitality. Our family remembers many happy holidays spent in Sarasota, delicious suppers round at the Magalhaes' with Leo, Kay, Krista and Jan and fun beach parties.

Leo and our Dad, Norman Rolle (Dominica), were very good friends, over many years (since Leo's Texaco days). When together, they always shared a beer and had a good laugh, and when apart they stayed in touch regularly via email - sharing news, inspirational ideas and humour.

For many years, it was a standing joke that Leo and Norman greeted each other as 'Mick', from the film 'Crocodile Dundee' (which started after a movie night at the Magalhaes' and continued ever since).

Leo really was the kindest, sweetest person, who was always happy to help others out. I will also remember him for his love of gardening and his great success with growing fruit trees, his love for tennis (especially his boy Pete Sampras) and Basketball.

I wish Leo and his good friend Norman a happy reunion now - laughing together again like a couple of young boys!

Fond memories from Norman Rolle's family: Natalie, Alex & Margarete

“ Daddy dear

A man named Leo (Lamb) with 16 siblings Married twice with 4 children plus two Developing relationships everywhere he went Laughter and joy following you

*Memories with your brothers: Kites, boats , marbles, sugar cane, swimming, fishing, church and school
Popa (Joaquim) and Ma (Mildred) always there to keep you all safe and to make sure you were nobody's fool*

*Living on various islands;
Trinidad, Guyana, Barbados, Antigua then settling in Sarasota Your work ethic was impeccable and you always surpassed your quota*

*A natural carpenter; creating detailed beautiful works of art Leaving a piece of yourself on this earth
Your children will treasure and keep those memories in their hearts*

*A landscaper, cook and gardener, growing bountiful amounts of delicious fruit
Mangoes, papaya, bananas, only to name a few*

*Home made jam, pepper sauce and delicious Palau made our tummies smile
We would have loved to share more meals, birthdays and holidays with you to have more memories that would last for miles*

*Distance kept us apart and we missed our dear father
We accepted the circumstances and didn't let it bother
We embraced our annual visits, special times spent with you not taking for granted the shared moments that were fun and true*

*92 years is an incredible life;
So many opportunities and blessings with hardly any strife
May your next journey welcome you with open arms, your family and friends among you
We are lucky to have a new Angel watching over us, soaring in skies of blue*

*We will miss your accent, your laugh- "keekee"-and your natural wit.
Sorrow now engulfs us without you here ; you taught us never to quit
Until we meet again daddy, a hug will be needed for sure Take care and may God bless you forever more!!!!*

"Yep", "I love you too", throw me into the sea daddy

“ My Grandpa Leo,

I am proud to be a Magalhaes because of you...

Your laugh, your accent, your stories, your food, you watching golf and tennis on tv, your love for my cakes, your orange/mango trees, your woodworking... these are a few things I will remember you by.

When you would visit Canada once a year, that was always a highlight of mine. You made our family feel more complete.

It always warmed my heart to watch you be with my Dad as he loved being around you. You definitely made the man laugh!

I am so glad I got to dance with you at Brad's wedding, experience you be a Great Grandpa to Kyla and Mila (unfortunately, didn't get to meet baby Wesley and baby Leo), you teaching me how to make some ginger beer (yum), and I truly appreciated our birthday calls/emails (April babies forever!).

You did well, Grandpa, and I hope you enjoyed your 92 years.

We miss and love you very much ❤️ And hope you're doing well wherever you are.

*Love always,
Kristina*
