“ Linda you were living proof that any thing can be done when your heart truly desires it. Watching you getting things done always gave me strenght.

One year at a flea market event I was working with my Brother I snuck into a wheelchair accessible stall and You come in banging on the door as feisty and as loud as you can you yelled "Are your even handicapped" Nervously I tried to finish as fast as humanly possible. When I walk out you started ripping me a new one, "Oh look it a miracle you can walk, don't leave your chair in there"

I apologized that's when I realized it was You, Linda you scared the heck out of me my leg and sneaker is soaking wet. We both had a great laugh.

To this day I would never use a handicap stall.

I love you and will miss your beautiful smile

You made life happier for all of your family and friends. May you Rest in Heavenly Peace.

“ My Aunt Linda was the best. I luvved to call her and talk to her all the time. I luvved when she came to Arkansas to see us. Aunt Linda always made her food from scratch. It was so good.
