

Mark Thomas Jackman

December 30, 1959 - January 22, 2023

Mark Thomas Jackman, 63, of Lake Mary, Florida, passed away after a sudden illness with his family by his side on Sunday, January 22, 2023 at Tidwell Hospice, Lakewood Ranch, Florida.

He was the loving husband and best friend of Shirley Monnette (Russo) Jackman. Mark was born in Evanston, Illinois, and graduated from New Trier High School in Winnetka, Illinois. He was the fifth son born to Herbert “Jack” Jackman and Myrtle “Jackie” Jackman (Nuck).

In addition to his wife, Mark is survived by his two sons from a prior marriage, Josiah and Jahmai Jackman, four brothers: Joel (Karen), Kim, Jon (Martha), and Kirk (Michelle) and several nieces and nephews. Helpful cousins Linda, Jim and Albina were recent acquaintances. He was preceded in death by his parents and grandparents Cecile Nuck and Harold and Ruth Jackman, and sister-in-law, Roberta Jackman.

Mark had worked with his father learning many skills in the “Jack of All Trades” business servicing communities on the North Shore suburbs of Chicago. He had a keen interest in cars, bicycling and wildlife. Mark enjoyed inter-state bicycling across the Southeast, engaging and evangelizing with people along the way about Jehovah and the Holy Scriptures. Most recently, he was employed Florida by Ceres Environmental as a Disaster Relief Contractor.

The family extends its gratitude to the caring staff at Sarasota Memorial Hospital and Tidwell Hospice as well as companions at Ceres Environmental who had provided so much support.

Friends may extend condolences via the guestbook at the www.MFHcares.com.

“ I knew Mark as a child growing up in Wilmette, IL. May he rest in eternal peace. I lost touch with him after junior high school and immensely regret this. His life was rich in service, friendship and experience and in that I find solace. God bless you my friend.
