“ I remember when our son Johnny was in your wedding! It has been such a joy to know Mark! He and Regina were great friends to us over the years! Even though we don't live in the same town anymore, we still treasure his memory, and rejoice that he is in his Heavenly home. Can't wait to see in when Jesus returns!

I appreciate the positive influence Mark had on Dustin, my son...a nephew through marriage. They shared many special moments. One of those special times was when Mark and Regina invited us to join them on THEIR vacation to NC years ago. We still talk about it. Mark had a tremendous, personal life story to share. Mark was a believer, and we're so glad all his health problems are forever gone...healed. We will miss Uncle Mark. Grace Gingerich (sister-in-law)
