“ I met Michael for the first time leaving to go on tour with The Sleeze City Junkies band in the early 90s. We bonded instantly on tour. He was the most intelligent, funny, talented person I've ever met. Our friendship grew from then on. He was my twin brother. Rest in peace you amazing human being. I will cherish our bond forever brother.

I didn't know Mike that well but he meant so much to a lot of people. He was a great friend and band mate to my husband and he spoke highly of him. What I did know about him was that he loved his friends and they loved him.
