

Pablo Pagan Torres

January 26, 1944 - November 11, 2024

Pablo Pagan Torres passed away in Bradenton, Florida on November 11th 2024. He was born in Puerto Rico on January 26th 1944.

Pablo was a creative and passionate person, for most of his life he was a horse trainer and harness racer. He also enjoyed training and racing dogs. He loved music, singing, and playing his guitar.

Pablo is preceded in death by his parents Carmello and Juana; and his brother Danny and sister Minerva.

Left to cherish his memory are his children Joanne Dunlop and her husband Donald, John Pagan and his wife Deena, Chrissy Rowden and her husband Glen, Lauren Roman and her husband Guillermo, Paul Pagan; siblings Jose Pagan and his wife Mary, Cesar Pagan and his wife Sandra; grandchildren Michael, Brittney, Ryan, Brandon, Ethan, Collin, Evan, Caden, Lyla, Lexi, Lily, Kesler; great grandchildren Taylor, Arya, Drennen, and Ethan.

Memories and condolences may be left for his family at www.MFHcares.com.