

Patricia Ann Berg

January 3, 1943 - November 12, 2023

Patricia (“Patty”) Ann Berg, 80, passed away unexpectedly on November 12, 2023 in Sarasota, Florida. Patty was born on January 3, 1943 in Lynn, MA. to the late Sophie (Grunkosky) Lavorgna and her late step-father Nicholas Lavorgna who loved and raised her as his own.

Patty was a life long resident of Beverly and then Salem MA. before retiring to Florida. She was a graduate from Beverly High School and then went on to graduate from Beauty School. Patty was a dedicated homemaker who enjoyed gardening, shopping, and travel with family and friends. When her daughter Julie was growing up, Patty was very involved in volunteering at the Beverly public schools her daughter attended, dance and cheering practices five days a week for over fifteen years and with the Parent-Teacher Association (PTA). Patty Berg never missed a field trip and always looked fabulous no matter what she was doing while volunteering her time.

Patty was very smart and ambitious, so when Julie left for college she thought to herself, “I can do that too, I think” and in her mid-forties bravely applied to Marion Court College. Patty went on to graduate as Valedictorian of her class with a 4.0 GPA and an Associates Degree in Travel and Tourism.

husband Chris McBride; and sister-in-law Nancy Lavorgna, as well as, many family and friends who loved her beauty, fashion sense, laughter and funny wit. To all that knew and adored her will always remember her as “The Amazon Queen”. We all learned never to tell Patty Berg you liked something on Amazon because it would show up at your front door the next day. She was just that generous and kind of a person.

In addition to her parents, Patty was predeceased by her brother Jack Lavorgna and former husband Robert Berg.

Funeral services for Patty will be private. Contributions may be made in her memory to the American Heart Association.
