“ To Paula and your beloved Family, I am greatly saddened by the news regarding the recent passing of your father David. He was a special wonderful man with a delightful sense of humor and panache. Our paths crossed many years ago, beginning with real estate connections and then within the local Jewish community. He was one in a million. I recall how he loved his home east of the trail near the Hospital. He shared many tongue in cheek tales living there with your brother. He always worked so hard and researched with detailed analysis each project he embraced in achieving a successful outcome. His charisma and charm, I anticipate, are part of your genetic make up. His picture oozes with his hint of humor and warmth. Again, my condolences on your loss. Lynn Brock
