

Paul A Wagler

October 16, 1950 - November 12, 2021

Paul A. Wagler, 71, of Middlebury, died on Friday, November 12 at Sarasota Memorial Hospital, Sarasota, FL, following complications from surgery.

He was a member of the Old Order Amish Church. Paul and his wife resided in Sarasota during the winter months and was employed by Yoder's Produce in Sarasota.

He was born on October 16, 1950, in Daviess County, Indiana to Arthur and Alta (Knepp) Wagler. On November 25, 1971, in Middlebury, he married Barbara Ellen Miller, she survives.

Survivors in addition to his wife are seven daughters, Delores Schlabach, Rosemary Wagler, Ruthann (Calvin) Bontrager, SuEllen (Leon) Yoder, Clara Wagler all of Middlebury, Alta (Lavon) Yoder of Shipshewana, Katie (Larry) Miller of Sarasota, FL; two sons, Marlin (Leona) Wagler of LaGrange, William (Regina) Wagler of Topeka; 38 grandchildren, three great-grandchildren; eight brothers, Harry (Mary) Wagler of OH, Martin (Marie) Wagler, Ezra (Geneva) Wagler, Ben (Sue) Wagler, Amos (Ida Rose) Wagler, Artie (Sara) Wagler, Dave (Marjorie) Wagler, Glen (Marjorie) Wagler all of Daviess County, IN; three sisters, Rosalie Stoll, Lovina (Wilmer) Raber, Alta Wagler all of Daviess County, IN. He was preceded in death by his parents; son-in-law, Norman Schlabach; grandson, Michael Bontrager; brother-in-law, Wilmer Stoll.

There will be a viewing on Monday, November 15, 2021 at the First Amish Church of Pinecraft in Sarasota, Florida. Additional services and burial will be held in Middlebury, Indiana under the direction of Miller Stewart Funeral Home. Memories and condolences may be left online at www.MFHcares.com.