Mom, you will be missed greatly, You passed down those great values of integrity, morals and values. You showed us how to love all God's people and creatures, You let us have lots of pets. You taught me to cook and clean at an early age so I could be Mama's little helper, by teaching me to cook, and take care of my younger siblings. And then you would write nice notes to me, for helping you and put them under my pillow. You taught me how to go through the thick and the thin of life..And never give up. You were there for me, during having my 6 children, Going through college and babysitting my children especially my last 2, so I could work dayshift, days history, 5 yrs you saved me tons of daycare. You taught me how to volunteer at neighbor for neighbor free health clinic, and I went with you many times to help you with meals on wheels. You taught me to respect every human being. You loved serving others. I loved being in your plans when you planned parties. You did them as good as Granny not leaving any detail out. I loved hearing your nursing stories. And all our long talks. You were so fun to hang out with, going to arts and craft festivals, shopping. And the Christmas festivities. I always loved our Colorado vacations, we went on as a family. I, I'll never forget the Jesus tent revival meetings you took all of us kids to. And I thought you were crazy, But now I, I, eternally grateful for those meetings. I just don't know where I would have been without you after my divorce, you were always there for me and my children paying for things we couldn't afford. I don't know where I'd be today if I hadn't had help from you and Jesus. You were truly the best I know you're looking down on us and can't wait to see you again.
