

Rae Deicke

May 26, 1935 - September 13, 2024

Raemonde Maud Deicke, known affectionately as Rae, passed away on September 13, 2024, in Bradenton, Florida, at the age of 89.

Born on May 26, 1935, in London, England. Rae spent her formative years in Wheathampstead, England before embarking on a career that saw her work in Switzerland, France, and New York. She eventually retired as the Secretary to the Headmaster at Charlotte Country Day School in Charlotte, NC. She made her home in Charlotte for 51 years before moving to Texas and then to Florida in 2023.

Rae was a woman of many passions, including photography, traveling, and gardening. These hobbies brought her immense joy and allowed her to capture the beauty of the world around her.

She was the beloved widow of Manfred Deicke and was preceded in death by her grandson Andrew Hunter Murray. Rae leaves behind a loving family, including her daughter Madeleine Robinson and her husband Antonio, her grandchildren Hailey Craven, Ashleigh Murray, and Elijah and Savannah Robinson.

Rae was a dedicated member of St Mark's Episcopal Church, where her funeral service will be held on October 10, 2024, at 10:30 am. The church is located at 8600 Mt Holly-Huntersville Rd, Huntersville, NC 28078.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Rae's memory to the Dementia Society of America at www.DementiaSociety.org/donate. These contributions will honor her legacy by supporting others facing dementia challenges.

“ Rae was the most kind and proper person I've ever known. When I think of her I see a queen so well put together. Her grace, style and personality made you feel special. I wish I had gone to have tea with her when she invited me. I don't know if I'll meet another one like her. She will be missed.
