“ Rebecca,

I want to thank you for being so forgiving and kind. You were the first person I told I was pregnant with Kai, your grandbaby. You were the one I spent my 21st birthday with. I am at a loss for words, and I miss you dearly. I promise to be here for the boys, and I know how much you adored them. You hated to see me sad but mamma I am so sad. Til we meet again.

“ I had the honor and privilege of knowing Becky since the day she was born. She recently shared a photo of her baptism that included her Mom, Grandma Rose, and me. I will cherish that picture. I have watched her grow from a baby, to a toddler, to my beautiful flower girl, to a teen, a young lady, a Mom and Grandma. She loved her boys and granddaughters very much. She had a zest for life and lived life on her terms. Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near. Still loved, still missed, and forever dear. RIP Rebecca Lynn, Remembering you with a lifetime of love, XO

“ I will always cherish the memories I have with Becky! My husband loved her beyond words since they were kids. That love has grown into my heart and I will ALWAYS remember her for the amazing loving person she was. Becky we always had a blast when you came to visit and I always told you how much I loved you and we would laugh so damn hard... Some things just won't be the same but I promise to take care of the boys and Jen...
