“ My first encounter with Becky was 30+ years ago, as we came into the south with a 9 month pregnant Kathy and her young daughter Heather. We were hot and tired and need of a cold beverage. Becky and Gene live in th complex and came by (almost a complete stranger) and brought us cold drink and brownies!
She become a friend of mine from the beginning with her generosity and caring attitude.
I'm sure when my time is up here on earth, I will be greeted by Becky in heaven.
Peace to you sweet Becky,
Sharon
