“ Bob represented a UK paper maker called Wiggins Teape for many years in the North American market. He was very successful competing against a major local US producer and was very well respected by all the customers and by the UK company. As a young Sales Manager for the UK company, I had the privilege and pleasure to work and travel with him. We worked hard and had great fun along the way. He had a fantastic way with the customers and I really learnt a lot from Bob. Treasured memories. RIP Bob. From your friend and colleague Ken
