

Robert Louis Sapan

January 24, 1930 - September 27, 2023

Robert Louis Sapan 1/24/1930—9/27/2023 A Design Industry leader enjoyed an impressive career with a flair for originality. Launching his first furniture design showroom (39 East) in the Miami Design District in the late 60's. The interior setting mimicked a "Cave" with an Ice Cream Parlor holding center stage. His goal was to present mid-century modern furniture in a setting that would not only attract interior designers but expose them to products that were truly innovative. His business expanded and grew with showrooms in DCOTA and product development with several manufacturers. His magnetic personality and finesse for "setting the stage" was only enhanced by the incredible grace, style and humor he embodied. Everyone in the industry loved Bob! A global traveler seeking the latest and finest. His love for fine art, theatre, and especially music would bring out his true personality— inevitably "breaking into song" or in some funny commentary. Bob not only enjoyed his work but especially loved his family and friends and will be sadly missed by all.

Robert Sapan is survived by former wife Christine Sapan, daughter Sloane McComb, husband William McComb and grandchildren Maverick and Bowie McComb, Daughter Wendy Sapan, grandchildren Marc Sapan & Francine Solomon, Daughter Jan Self, grandchildren Selinda Newsom & Gabriel Higdon.
