

Roy "Butch" Brown Sr.

August 13, 1949 - May 6, 2023

Roy "Butch" Hilton Brown, Sr., 73, passed away May 6, 2023. He was born August 13, 1949 in Avella, Pennsylvania and came to Sarasota in 1985 from Ruff Creek, Pa.

He served in the Army at Fort Bragg, North Carolina as an Executive Chef from 1969 to 1971. He finished out his military in Pennsylvania where he was honorably discharged in 1975.

Butch worked as a landscaper on Longboat Key for over 20 years. He was a baseball, football and NASCAR enthusiast. He was a Tampa Bay Rays fan and loved to watch his Pittsburgh Steelers always win. He enjoyed country music and liked to watch a good western as well.

Survivors include his son, Roy Hilton Brown, Jr. and daughter-in-law Roseann M. Brown of Sarasota; daughter, Donna L. Bailey and son-in-law Jon G. Bailey of Myakka City; brother, Norman "Lurch" Brown and sister-in-law Arleta Brown of Waynesburg, Pennsylvania; five grandchildren, Jessica, Jordan, Katie, Caleb and Leah; and five great grandchildren, Daniel, Jaclynn, Clayton, Kinlea and Easton.

He will be laid to rest at the Sarasota National Cemetery with Army Honors. Donations can be made to Tidewell Hospice or the the D.A.V.

Cemetery Details

Sarasota National Cemetery

9810 State Road 72
Sarasota, FL 34241

Events

Details are pending.

Tribute Wall

MN

“ Sending prayers and hugs to all of them. Uncle Butch is going to be missed. Hopefully he is with Grandma Brown and the rest of the family up in Heaven. ”

Michelle Campbell (Brown) Niece - May 27, 2023 at 10:57 PM

AT

“ Thank you for your service. ”

Amy TPiatak - May 27, 2023 at 07:10 PM