

Sandra Chackman

January 26, 1951 - December 16, 2024

Sandra Chackman passed away in Venice Florida on December 16th. She was born in Philadelphia Pennsylvania on January 26th 1951.

Sandra was a hard working, bright spirit who had an impact on everyone she met. She was well-known in her community in Philadelphia, owning “My Sister’s Place” salon with her sister Claire, and being a hairdresser there. She was also known to love dancing and golfing. She had lived in Marlton, New Jersey before making the move to Venice, Florida where she’d spend the rest of her time.

Sandra is preceded in death by her parents Alexander and Eleanor; and husband Ben Chackman.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her honor to Parkinson’s research at: <https://bit.ly/49GVE9q>

“ Sandy always had a smile even in her difficult final years. She was an inspiration to me as well as anyone who knew her. I remember her love of music and dancing, and a need for makeup and her hair done even when lying in bed. A fun, infectious spirit who I now vision back dancing in heaven. RIP dear friend!
