“ My heart hurts for the loss of you my friend. We all say we should stay in better touch with friends and family, then life gets in the way. Hard to believe I knew you for 24 years back when you were 14 years old. You might have gotten bigger buddy but you never grew up. Lol. The obituary mentions both Spanky's meritorious achievement award and his life saving award. I was there with him on both and wrote the recommendations for the awards. I have never been more proud to submit an award recommendation in my career on both, but especially the life saving award. It still gives me goosebumps thinking about all the things that should have gone wrong, but didn't. Because of Shaun's dedication to this case, we were able to find someone at exactly the right time. I send all my heart and prayers and offer my condolences to Shaun's family and friends. You will be missed brother.

I named one of his awards incorrectly above. It was a "Heroic" achievement, not meritorious. Although his attempts at saving a life were certainly meritorious, they were ultimately unsuccessful. However, Shaun put himself in grave danger in his attempts while trying to save a driver in a head on collision on I75.
