

Susan Mary Ashton

May 25, 1935 - February 22, 2024

Susan Mary Ashton, 88, passed away February 22, 2024. She was born May 25, 1935 in Chicago, Illinois to the late Lewis and Kathryn (Wells) Eichenfeld.

Susan earned her undergrad from MacMurry College, Masters from Ohio State and her PhD from Loyola University. She served as Professor of English at Olive-Harvey College in Chicago for a number of years and was head of the English Department by the time she took an early retirement in 1994 and moved to Sarasota, Florida. She loved the cultural scene locally here including ballet, symphony and operas.

Left to cherish her memory are her friends from the Cedar Creek Community and son, John Ashton. In addition to her parents, Susan was predeceased by her husband Oshen Martin Ashton.

Memories and condolences may be left for family online at www.MFHcares.com.
